

Alzheimer's Disease Awareness Month

United States

An estimated 700,000 will die in U.S. aged 65 or older with Alzheimer's

226 Billion

Cost to Americans in 2015

5.1M

Number of older Americans suffering from the disease in 2015

California
41,000 will be diagnosed this year

Mississippi
270,000 will be diagnosed this year

473,000

Number of new diagnoses expected in U.S. for ages 65 or older in 2015

California
190,000 will be diagnosed this year

Florida
120,000 will be diagnosed this year

Florida
500,000 will be diagnosed this year

Fact

Alzheimer's is the most common form of dementia

6th leading cause of death, in the U.S.

Every 67 seconds someone in the U.S. develops the disease

7.1M
Number of older Americans estimated to suffer from the disease in 2025